

2011 Continental Crown Judo Tournament

BC Results from the November 5th Continental Crown Judo Tournament in Seattle, Washington. Here are the results for five BC clubs who attended.

Burnaby Judo Club

- Amara Jarvinen - 1st in 11 and 12 year olds, 2nd in 13 and 14 year olds
- Brandon Varasteh - 1st in 11 and 12 year olds, 4th in 13 and 14 year olds
- Anil Kumar - 1st in U20, 2 wins/2 losses in Senior Men
- Gabby De Sousa - 3rd in Senior Women
- Ashley Bartlett - 1st in Senior Women
- Dmitro Yamshchykov - 3rd in Senior Men - made it to finals but had to withdraw due to concussion symptoms
- Jonathan Roth - DNP (did not place)

Kokoro Judo Club

- Stephanie Salzbrenner, Kokoro Judo Club (100 Mile House) – 1st – junior women 15-16 years old
- Aiden Fentiman, Kokoro Judo Club (100 Mile House) – 3rd – junior boys 13-14 years old

North Capital Judo Club

- Brandon Slooyer, North Capital Judo Club – 2nd – junior men 15-16 years old

Prince George Judo Club

- Tami Goto, Prince George Judo Club – 3rd – junior girls 9-10 years old
- Taylor Schaus, Prince George Judo Club, 1st – junior boys 11-12 years old
- Kristen Yawney, Prince George Judo Club – 1st – senior women under brown belt

Steveston Jud Club:

- Tavis Jamieson lost his first with a hansoku make but won his second with an ippon to finish in place second. Tavis was thrown for an ippon in the team competition.
- Meghan Jamieson had three impressive wins and then lost her last fight to place second.
- Lisa Nakajima won both of her matches very quickly to place first. Lisa used her sankaku against her opponent for Canada's only win.

Results were submitted by Mark Nariwa (Burnaby), Kane Morishita (Steveston) and Aline Strasdin (Prince George).