Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

It is a real pleasure for the International Judo Federation, to come back to Tyumen. The best judoka in the world already met here, on the occasion of the last edition of Open World Championship in 2011. The event was very successful and, undoubtedly, the World Judo Masters will meet again a great success this year.

The World Judo Masters have a special place in our international calendar as it is the only invitational competition based on our world ranking list. The level will be particularly high and the show is guaranteed. A little less than a year after the London Games and a few weeks prior to the World Championships in Rio, it will be a good test for all the competitors.

I wish good luck to all participants and congratulate the Russian Judo Federation that shines through its results, but also by its ability to host major events.

Mr. Vasily ANISIMOV
President of Russian Judo
Federation

Dear Friends!

I am glad to invite you to Tyumen, Russia, to one of the most important judo events in 2013 – Masters!

Masters events have started their history from 2010 and we are very proud to host these elite judo competitions in the year after the Olympic Games. Tyumen became well-known to judo fans due to organization of Open World Championships and European Championships U23 in 2011. Tyumen is a city of sport. Judo is one of the most popular sports here. After the success of Russian judokas at London Games and World Team Championships in Salvador everyone feels a real judo boom in the country. New judo schools and clubs open their doors.

I am sure that this Masters event will become one of the best tournaments in the history and give a good impact for the future generation of Russian children to do judo. I believe that all participants and guests will be satisfied with organization level and receive only good impressions about this hospitable Russian city.

I would like to thank International Judo Federation and its President, Mr.Vizer for placing your trust and confidence in us. I wish him further success in developing our big and friendly judo family!
