Introduction

The following handbook contains information you need to know about being a competitive Judo BC athlete at the Provincial and National level. It is important for you to read and understand the enclosed material. If you are unclear about anything, please contact your club coach. Club coaches can reach out to Judo BC staff if they don't have the information or the answers to any questions you may have.

Modifications may be made to the material provided in this handbook. Any changes will be posted online and/or emailed directly to you. Periodically, Judo BC and Provincial Team Coaches will communicate special notices to clubs, coaches and athletes involved in our provincial programs.

Email and SLACK (free communication app) are the primary modes of communication for Judo BC with athletes, parents, and club coaches. Please download the SLACK app and ensure we have your current email address, your parents, and your club coaches email addresses.

This handbook is designed to be a user-friendly source of information for athletes, their parents, and their club coaches. It is not a replacement for the Judo BC Bylaws & Constitution or the Judo BC Policies and Procedures. If there is any conflict between the handbook and the Judo BC Bylaws & Constitution or Policies and Procedures, the latter takes precedence. Various acronyms and sport specific language are used throughout this document in reference to different organizations or concepts. These acronyms and concepts are listed and/or described in the next section.

In addition, ViaSport BC offers dispute resolution services at the Provincial level and the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada offers services at the National level.

Concussion Reporting Requirements and Protocols

Judo Canada requires all concussions, or suspected concussions, that occur during a judo related activity (training or competition) be reported online to Judo Canada. All participants with confirmed concussions must follow specific return to activity protocols posted on the Judo Canada website. Also, there are specific templates for concussion assessment letters and concussion clearance letters that must be completed by a medical profession. These templates are also posted on the Judo Canada website.

Long Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity

Judo BC follows the Judo Canada Long Term Development Model. The concept of Long-Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity is a framework for the optimal development of every child, youth and adult to enable optimal participation in sport and physical activity. The objective of the framework is to promote both sporting excellence at the highest international level and life-long engagement in health-enhancing physical activity. For more information about Long Term Development please see the Athlete Development section of the Judo BC website.

Resilience BC

Anti-Racism Network provides information about how to report incidences of racism and hate crimes if you are a victim or witness such incidences.

Nutrition and Weight Management

Judo is a complex sport that requires a combination of speed, strength, a strong anaerobic capacity, and endurance. Added to these unique physiological requirements is the challenge to compete in a specific weight class. Providing the right “fuel” (food and hydration) in the appropriate amounts is vital to maintaining the energy required for both training and competition.

While many top-level adult age judo players compete in a weight category that is slightly below their normal weight, this is not something that is recommended for youth age athletes for a variety of reasons including affects on growth, negative impacts on performance, fatigue, increased risk of injury and the potential negative long term impacts including bone density, disordered eating, menstrual disorders, kidney problems and heart problems.

If you have questions about weight management, please talk to your club coach, regional coach, the Team BC coaches and/or visit the BodySense website.

Judo BC offers nutrition seminars for Team BC athletes regularly and recommends and pays for support from a nutritionist to Team BC athletes on an as needed basis.

Responsible Coaching Movement

The Responsible Coaching Movement (RCM) is a call to action for sport organizations, parents, and coaches to enact responsible coaching across Canada – on and off the field.

The Coaching Association of Canada and the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport support the Canadian sporting community in improving practices that ensure the health, safety, and well-being of all participants. Judo BC and Judo Canada have signed the pledge to support this movement.

The RCM involves 3 steps for all coaches and clubs:

1. Rule of Two

The goal of the Rule of Two is to ensure all interactions and communications are open, observable, and justifiable. Its purpose is to protect participants, especially minors and vulnerable adults, and coaches in potentially vulnerable situations by ensuring more than one adult is present at all times. There may be exceptions in specific and/or emergency situations.

2. Background Screening

Background screening ensures that coaches meet the important requirements to coach. Screening tools include comprehensive job postings, criminal record checks, interviews, and reference checks.

3. Ethics Training

Ethics training prepares coaches to effectively handle situations that arise from ethical dilemmas or even legal challenges that concern individuals, teams, and their sports organizations.

Ethics training includes the NCCP Make Ethical Decisions \(MED\) module within the National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP), as well as training in abuse and harassment prevention, such as the Respect in Sport training.

Safe Sport Training

Judo BC and Judo Canada require all coaches and volunteers that work with youth and/or vulnerable adults to take Safe Sport Training. There are several groups that offer various levels of training including:

1. NCCP Safe Sport Training
2. Respect in Sport for Coaches
3. Respect in Sport for Parents
4. Canadian Centre for the Protection of Children – Commit to Kids

Judo BC is in the process of updating our Safe Sport Policies and Requirements. For now, all coaches and volunteer must follow the Judo Canada Safe Sport Policies and parents of athletes in the Provincial Team Programs can see the requirements in the Requirements Chart at the end of the document.

Sleep and Recovery

Quality sleep and recovery are as important to performance as proper training and nutrition. For more information about sleep here are some resources:

Sleep – Why it is Important During the Teen Years

15 Tip & Tricks for Health Sleep Hygiene

Proper recovery periods will be included in the club and/or provincial team program training plans created for the athletes based on the Judo Canada Long Term Development Model and the Judo BC High Performance Pathway.

Team BC App

Athletes selected for the Provincial Team Program will be required to track their training, conditioning, sleep habits, mood etc... on the Team BC App. In addition to providing valuable information to the coaches regarding the athletes' training activities, strength & fitness levels this app helps the coaches monitor and adjust activities in order to help safeguard the over all health and wellness of the athletes in the program.

Athletes that apply for Team BC will be expected to start using this App. The login information for the App will be sent out to individuals once they have submitted their application for the Provincial Team Program.

Financial Information

Judo BC Funding

Judo BC provides partial funding to athletes that are part of the Provincial Team Program (PTP). This funding is provided quarterly and based on the trips attended and the athlete's Provincial Team level. More information is provided in the PTP Selection Criteria. Funding is dependent on Judo BC's financial position and the amount of government grants we receive on an annual basis.

Overall Judo BC spends approximately $100,000 per year on our athlete development program. This does not include staff salaries, or the fees we collect for services, events or team trips.

Judo BC annually applies for funding to support to our Provincial Team Program including Enhanced Excellence funding from ViaSport BC, Community Gaming Grants from the BC Government and any other funding opportunities that we are eligible for.

Self-Funding

For various trips through the year, athletes that are not part of the PTP, are invited to attend tournaments as members of Team BC on a fully self-funded basis. Notification of these opportunities are sent to clubs, posted on the Judo BC website, social media and included in the bi-weekly e-newsletter. Eligibility to participate on a self-funded basis is determined by the technical rules for the tournament the team is attending. These rules are included in the technical packages for the tournaments and links to these packages are provided in the notifications.

Deposits and payments

We require participants to pay deposits for team travel upon registration so that we have the cash on hand to pay deposits on hotels, airfare and ground transportation. Final payments are generally required 5 weeks ahead of departure so that we can make our final payments on airfare 30 days prior to travel. We appreciate timely payments as chasing down payments takes up significant staff time that could be better spent on things like grant applications and program development.

Judo BC accepts payments by e-transfers to info@judobc.ca or cheques mail to 1140 Cloverley St, North Vancouver BC V7L 1N6. We also accept Visa, MasterCard and PayPal when registering for events or activities online, via Trackie.

Refunds

Any costs incurred by Judo BC due to the withdrawal of an athlete from a Team BC trip, no matter what the reason, will be the responsibility of the athlete.

KidSport™ British Columbia

KidSport™ Canada is a national not-for-profit organization that provides financial assistance for registration fees and equipment to kids aged 18 and under for families in need. Through a confidential application process KidSport™ provides grants so kids can play a season of sport. For more information on how to apply visit KidSport™ British Columbia. Athletes receiving support from KidSport BC may be eligible for additional support from Judo BC. Please contact the Judo BC Executive Director if you are eligible.

Athlete Sponsorship & Donations

If you have friends, family or know of a business that may want to sponsor you, we have an Athlete Sponsorships Information sheet that you can provide to potential sponsors. We also have a program set up with the BC Amateur Sports Fund to accept donations to our Athlete Development Program.

Athletes can also solicit donations via platforms such as MAKEACHAMP.COM (leading crowd-funding platform) or by asking friends, family and businesses directly.

Please keep in mind the following:

- Sponsorships are based on reciprocity – where cash or in-kind gifts are contributed, usually in exchange for marketing or advertising consideration. They are typically bound by a written agreement between the two parties stating the value of the sponsorship and the benefits for all involved.
- A donation is an altruistic gift, without the need for anything in exchange from the organization or athlete.
- Donations made directly to Judo BC, a judo club or individual are not eligible for tax receipts.
- The BCASF is a Registered Canadian Amateur Athletic Association (RCAAA) with the Canada Revenue Agency (#88938 6868 RR0001) and is able to issue an official tax receipt for all qualifying donations of $20 or greater.

School Credits Program

The External Sport Credentials Program (ESCP) of the BC Ministry of Education is administered and monitored by the BC Ministry for Ministry of Tourism, Arts, Culture and Sport. It gives secondary school students the opportunity to earn graduation credits for approved levels of competition as an athlete, coach and/or official. Judo athletes are eligible to receive credits for the following:

- BC Games Athlete = Athlete 10 (UXSA 10, 4 credits)
- Provincial Team Member and/or Open Nationals competitor = Athlete 12 (UXSA 12, 4 credits)

Please contact the Judo BC office to request a letter confirming our involvement in the BC Games, Provincial Team Program or Nationals that you can give to your school to receive the credits.

Travel

When participating in out of province events as part of Team BC, all travel arrangements including air, ground, hotel, and to will be booked by Judo BC. Registration and payment of entry fees for the competitions is the responsibility of the athlete/family and/or club. Reminders will be sent to athletes to complete the competition registration.

Initial flight itineraries are sent out once an athlete has registered to participate in a BC Team event however airline e-tickets are only emailed out after Judo BC receives the final payment.

It is the responsibility of the athlete to ensure they have the appropriate photo identification required by the airline and to ensure the name on their ticket matches the name on their photo identification. Athletes are also responsible for being aware of the airline baggage allowances and rules. Costs incurred by athletes for excess baggage are the responsibility of the athlete.

Team Travel

When participating at an event as a member of the BC Team, athletes are required to travel and stay with the team, as arranged by Judo BC. The reasons for this are numerous and include supervision of minors, providing learning experience and creating an environment team bonding. Parents are reminded that if they travel to an event as spectators, they must get permission from the team staff prior to taking their child away from the team at any time for any reason (i.e., taking the child to a medical clinic or giving them a ride to the hotel from the tournament site). Parents are strongly encouraged to stay at a separate hotel from the team whenever possible. This allows the athletes to experience the event as a member of the team, relying on their team members and the team staff for support rather than their parents.

For some tournaments, especially those with many youth athletes attending, one or more adult chaperones travel with the team to assist the coaches with the supervision and organization of the athletes. The chaperone's role involves doing nightly curfew checks, communicating with team regarding daily schedules, coordinator airport and hotel check-in plus other tasks to assist the coaches and help support the athletes.

Meals

Participants are responsible for paying for their own meals when traveling as a member of the BC Team. We recommend approximately $45 per day for food ($10 for breakfast, $15 for lunch and $20 for dinner). To reduce these costs Team Staff, whenever possible, will arrange for athletes to purchase food at a local grocery store once they arrive at their destination. Fridges and microwaves for the rooms are requested when the accommodation is booked, but not always available.

Curfew

Please be advised that there will be an 11 pm or early curfew for all Team BC athletes regardless of their age when travelling as a member of the BC Team. At any time, coaches and/or chaperones may change curfew time to better suit competition performance.

Judogis

For most Provincial level competitions and all National level competitions, competitors are required to have a minimum of 2 judogis, one blue and one white (we recommend four judogis for National competitions). Reversible judogis are acceptable. When travelling by air, we recommend athletes include one blue and one white gi in their carry-on baggage along with any medications in case your checked luggage is lost or delayed. Athletes should check with their club coach or club referee to ensure their judogi fits properly as some athlete can grow several inches a year.

Team BC Jackets

It is strongly encouraged that Team BC athletes purchase and wear Team BC jackets at all Team BC events including training, travel, and competition. Jackets can be purchased online, and details will be posted online once sales are open.

Annual Competitions

These annual competitions allow U18, U21 and Senior athletes to gain points towards selection to the National Team and selections for international competition opportunities. These events include Quebec Open (Nov), Ontario Open (Nov), Elite Nationals (Jan), Saskatchewan Open (Jan), Edmonton International (March), Pacific International (March) and Open Nationals (May). Additional Information

Judo Canada Passport

The passport's purpose is to track your career in judo and to demonstrate your activities for your belt promotions. You are required to have a Judo Canada Passport prior to grading for Shodan and should apply once you received your brown belt. Please note this passport is not a proof of membership, of identity, or of citizenship and is not required at competitions.

Judo Canada Membership Card

Judo Canada sends membership cards to every member each year. The cards are sent to your club for distribution shortly after registration is submitted via Trackie to Judo BC/Judo Canada. Please bring your card to every provincial and national event. Alternatively you can bring a photo of your card on your smart phone.

Grading

Grading for colour belts (mudansha) is done by the clubs and is based on the Judo Canada Mudansha Grading Syllabus.

Black Belt grading for 1st degree black belt (shodan) to 5th degree black belt (godan) is under the jurisdiction of Judo Canada and Judo BC. In January 2021 Judo Canada introduced a new black belt (yudansha) grading stream for competitive athletes. This means athletes that hold a rank of brown belt or higher, are 15 years of age and older, competing in U18 and older age division no longer need to attend a grading clinic and be formally examined in order to be promoted to black belt. Instead, once athletes have the required points from national level competitions (100 points for shodan, 120 for Nidan, etc..), they will be required to attend specified provincial level kata clinic.

For more information about black belt grading please see the Judo Canada Yudansha Grading Syllabus. Information about competitive stream kata clinics will be announced as scheduled by Judo BC in our newsletter and social media.

Appreciation

Behind every good athlete is a team of supporters. As a member of Judo BC, we would like to remind you to take the time to thank the people who have helped you get to where you are. It only takes a minute, but it will mean a lot to those people who are your biggest fans. Who are these people? Coaches, officials, tournament organizers, volunteers, club board members, family and of course your fellow athletes.

Communication

Email and SLACK (communication app) are the primary mode of communication for Judo BC. Please ensure the Provincial office (info@judobc.ca) has your current email address. It is strongly encouraged that all athletes (and parents & coaches) sign up for (and read!) the Judo BC E-newsletters which is emailed twice a month and includes all the latest news, upcoming deadline & events, rule updates, reminders and stories featuring our members. If you have a story or pictures to share with the Judo BC community, please send them to info@judobc.ca anytime.

Social Media

Social media is invaluable to amateur athletes, their coaches, and clubs, and we encourage you to engage fans, partner sport organizations and potential sponsors via social media platforms. It is important to remember that when you use social media, you do so as an athlete/coach/club, a member of Judo BC, and a representative of Judo Canada. Local, national, and international media all use social media platforms to connect directly to athletes, this means your post are being used as direct quotes in news articles whether you like it or not. Along with tracking Judo BC in the news, Judo BC monitors and promotes your social media channels.

Judo BC encourages participants to at all times exercise self-control and show respect for peers, opponents, officials, spectators, and volunteers and at all times be respectful, professional, and responsible. This applies to every post you share. Nothing you post is completely private – regardless of privacy settings.

Judo BC is currently updating its Social Media and Communications Policy. For now, please be sure to read and adhere to the Judo Canada Social Policy.

Estimate Costs for Out of Province Events

The costs listed below are for out of province travel and are estimates based on the few years prior to COVID-19 with the assumption there will be an increase in the cost of travel post pandemic.

For each event, the total includes flight, ground transportation, accommodation, coach support fees and travel administration fees. These costs do not include the registration fees for competitions or camps or meals. Athletes on the Elite A & B and Provincial A & B Teams will receive some direct funding to help offset these costs. The funding amounts per athlete will be determined in late fall once Judo BC knows the full impact of the pandemic on the budget for 2021-22.

Estimated Costs	Event	Event Dates	Location	Final Payment to Judo BC Due
$1000	Saskatchewan Open	October 23 & 24 or January TBC	Regina	4 weeks prior to event
$1400	Quebec Open (Ontario Open cancelled)	November 13 & 14	Montreal & Toronto	October 15
$1600	Elite Nationals & Training Camp	January TBC	Edmonton	December 1
$1000	Edmonton International	March	Edmonton	February 1
$500	Inter-Provincial Camp	April	Canmore	March 1
$1800	Open National Championships & Training Camp	May	Montreal	April 1
$1400	Canada Cup	June TBC	Montreal	May 15

Please note the following regarding travel costs:

- Airlines do not offer discounts for group bookings; however, they will combine any seat sales (limited number of seats per flight) with their regular fares to provide the best available rates on the day of booking.
- Airlines adjust flight costs based on a real time price algorithm, designed to boost revenue for the airline. This means flights can vary hour to hour and as demand increases so does the cost.
- Judo BC has to book specific flight times in order to accommodate the following:
 - a large number of athletes traveling
 - arrival times for athletes traveling from multiple locations.
 - Tournament weight in times

This limits our options which can mean higher flight costs.

- Hotels are selected based on:
 - recommendations from local organizers,
 - the hotels' ability to accommodate a large group
 - allowing 4 athletes per room without additional costs
 - location in relation to the competition or training venue
 - onsite amenities such as microwaves, fridges, washing machines etc.

This selection process can limit the available options and increase cost.

- Judo BC always looks for the best prices.
- Comparing flight and hotel booking for one person should not be compared to team travel bookings due to the above considerations.
